

LAKE COUNTRY DOCKHOUNDS MEDIA RELEASE

Milwaukee Takes Extra-Inning Victory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Monday, August 15th, 2022

FRANKLIN, WI. - The Milwaukee Milkmen edged the Lake Country DockHounds in a 2-1 victory in 10 innings Monday evening.

Believe it or not, the contest was scoreless until the 10th inning.

With the international rule of an automatic runner at second base, Casey Dykstra would be on second. Lake Country would take a late 1-0 lead when Jordan Schaffer reached on a single, scoring Dykstra.

Carlos Diaz would take the bump in the bottom of the 10th but would give up a double to left field. Miguel Gomez hit the ball off the left field wall for the Milkmen.

A fly out to Lamar Briggs in right field would advance the winning run to third base. However, Carl Chester plated the winning run with a sacrifice fly to right field.

DockHounds starting pitcher Francisco Jimenez gave up three hits, no runs, and struck out four through seven complete innings. On the other side, Myles Smith struck out six through six innings of work.

Carlos Diaz took the loss as the closer, and Jack Mahoney was victorious in relief for Milwaukee.

The Lake Country DockHounds continue their four-game series against the Milwaukee Milkmen on Tuesday, August 16th. Sam Matheny will be live on the call from Franklin Field.
